OUR POLICY WITH CHINA

Interesting Speech by Minister Wu to New York Merchants.

Expansion of American Trade Welcomed by Chinese Chance to Give and Take -Remarks on Land Grabbing.

New York, Feb. 9.-Speaking at the Kalihi Valley. The view to dinner of the Silk Association of America at Delmonico's last night, the Chi-Pearl Harbor is the best in nese Minister, Wu Ting Fang, said: the city of Honolulu. The "When any disturbance or trouble has occurred in China or elsewhere in the soil is very deep; no stones or rocks on the place.

occurred in China or elsewhere in the East, not only did the government agrieved demand compensation for the Water will be laid before outrage, but beyond that they demand purchasers are ready to build to the matter in hand. In fact, they A space will be set apart, often make a pretext of a trouble, such as a missionary trouble, to exact adin memory of the Princess vantages and concessions, which may have no reference to the matter in point. In saying this I do not condemn The lots will be sold at the lowest prices in the market, There are a good many pious and nowith which other real estate ble missionaries in China, and they have been and are still doing good agents will not afford to compete.

Applications for lots will have been and are still doing good work in every country in the East, but there is a black sheep in every flock, you know.

"So, if a disturbance should occur to be received at our office, and will be given preference of chosing lots in the order they are received.

For further particulars apply to the policy of the nations in Europe?

"Therefore, if those nations want to solve this Asiatic question one of the solutions is to make an open declara-tion of their policy. They should de-clare to China and the other Asiatic countries what their policy is, what they mean; they should tell them that if anything befall any of the missionaries or merchants they will demand this or that. Then if this is the all exprained to them openly why, we can understand what you mean. But if, instead of doing that, under the cloak of sending missionaries to preach the ospel, and if anything should happen to the missionaries (which in any na-tion you cannot help; sometimes my countrymen here have been murdered or assaulted by a low class of people) what can we do? What can you do? So, if anything should happen in China or Japan of that sort, is it very strange for the rabble to do something without the knowledge of the authorities? All we want is an open declara-

"I am glad to find that it is not the policy of this great Republic to depart from your traditional policy and go in for acquisitions for grabbing or—I should be more careful in saying thisthat you are not going to adopt terri-torial aggrandizement, but that you are going in for expansion of trade. I am not surprised. We don't quarrel with you for that. We don't blame you. In fact, we welcome you. Do you know Because in trade it is a barter; it is for the benefit of both sides; it is to give and take. We give you the Guitar, Mandolin, Zither, equivalent; you give us something back in return.

"If you go in on this Pacific policy of commerce and trade you will be wel-comed everywhere, not only in China, but also in Japan as well. We welcome you. We will do everything to please you, but, in return, gentlemen, we want to be treated in like manner. Now, on this point, I cannot do better than quote a principle enunciated by our great saint, Confucius, twenty-five streets. Office hours: 9 to 11; 2 to 4; By a New, Quick Method! centuries ago. He was one day asked what should a man do, what should be the rule of conduct in house, in busito adult beginners.
Address PIANO, Bulletin office. 1419 ple. In answer he said: "Is not this reciprocity?"

"It was to the same effect, said by Him, whom shall I say, your prophet, your savior, who said: 'What you would have others do to you, do the same to them.' But whether it is a merchant, whether it is a tradesman, whether it is a benefactor or whether it be a nation, if we follow this sound principle we snall have no quarrel, no dispute and no cause for war.'
